

Dear Customer,

Welcome and thank you for your interest in our products and services.

Enclosed please find a new account application that must be completed in its entirety before we can establish your account. Your application must include signatures of either an officer or an owner of your company.

If your purchases are to be tax exempt, please attach a copy of your current resale tax certificate to the application. If a copy of your resale tax certificate is not received, your company will be charged applicable state and local taxes.

Upon receipt of your completed account application and resale tax certificate, if applicable, we will promptly establish your account and process any pending orders.

Sincerely,

Credit Department
